1,154 Descendants Stephen BAILEY & Mary Ann Jefferies - 14 Generations

Generation No. 5

6. WILLIAM FLEMING SR.[5] BAILEY (JAMES[4], JOHN II[3], JOHN I[2], STEPHEN[1]) was born 1755, and died June 21, 1817 in Lancaster District, South Carolina. He married MARY MOLLEY SPRUNT July 09, 1777 in Warren (Bute) County, North Carolina, daughter of JAMES SPRUNT.

Notes for WILLIAM FLEMING SR. BAILEY:
BIOGRAPHY

William Fleming Bailey, Senior, is recognized by the National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Application for the N.S.D.A.R., under National Number 462 469, (Computer Code Number Al3-039) was submitted by Maryline Cauthen Westenhaver in Auburn, Alabama. The application was verified and approved January 5, 1976.

Maryline Cauthen Westenhaver's Lineage Follows:

Maryline Cauthen
Edward Francis Cauthen & Kate Garland Luttrell
John Canaday Cauthen & Gazarine Gilliam Hammond
George Cauthen & Nancy Bailey
William Fleming Bailey, Senior & Molley Sprunt
James Sprunt

The proof that William Bailey was a Revolutionary soldier is established by a voucher # 1331, dated first of September 1784, for 31 pounds and nine shillings in the North Carolina Archives showing he was paid in Halifax District of which Warren County was a part, and this has been accepted by N.S.D.A.R. Bute County had been divided in 1778, (a year after William's marriage) into Warren and Franklin Counties.

A monument to William Fleming Bailey's Revolutionary Service and Patriotism stands with other Patriots monuments at Salem Cemetery in Heath Springs, Lancaster County, S.C., on Highway 521. A dedication ceremony was held in May 1976 for the Revolutionary Patriots of Lancaster County at Salem Cemetery. William Bailey fought in Revolutionary battles in the State of North Carolina. William's actual grave site is at the Mackey/Walker Cemetery on Hoke Road off of MT. Carmel Campground Road.

William Fleming Bailey, Senior, was born about 1755. In 1771 he was 16 years of age or over and was living with his father, James Bailey, in Bute (Warren) County, North Carolina which adjoins the Virginia line in the eastern part of the state. He married Molley Sprunt in Bute County on 9 July 1777 (original marriage bond within N.C. Archives), served in the Revolutionary War in the North Carolina Continental Line, and migrated to Lancaster County, South Carolina shortly after the War and settled on Cedar Creek.

Three hundred and thirty acres were surveyed for William Bailey on the 3rd of January 1788. Situate in the District of Camden on the Drains and Runs of Cedar Creek North East Side of the Catawba River bounding South West on said William Baileys & William Stevens Land, South West on William Robinson's Land & Vacant Land, North West on Jon Simpson and Isaac Stewarts Land , North East on Bailey Flemings Land. On June 2nd 1788, he paid seven pounds for the tract of land, witness by Thomas Pinckney. Chimney and foundation remains of the Bailey home site can be found along Cedar Creek, on Walker Road which is between Stoneboro Road(Hwy. 522) and MT. Carmel Campground Road.

William Bailey, Sr. had a younger brother, Kanneday (or Cannaday) Bailey, Sr. who also came to Lancaster County before 1790. This is established in a land suit in Lancaster County in 1842.

His father-in-law, James Sprunt also migrated to Lancaster County before 1790. James Sprunt's service as a Patriot has been accepted by the National Society of Daughters of American Revolution (N.S.D.A.R.). on National Number 462 469, also submitted by Maryline Cauthen Westenhaver. His patriotic service is shown by North Carolina voucher # 1787 issued at Halifax District on September 15, 1781. He bought land on Cedar Creek, Lancaster County in 1792, died in Kershaw County before August 23, 1806. Other daughters of James Sprunt were wives of Wm. Stevens, Joseph Graves & John Hood.

Other men named Wm. Bailey were in southern and western North Carolina. The proof that William Bailey, Senior , of Lancaster County, S.C. was the William Bailey of Warren County, N.C. is that William Bailey signed as a legatee after his father-in-law, James Sprunt, died in Kershaw County.

William Bailey, Sr. had 4 sons - the youngest (Kennerdy William) moved to Alabama after 1833 while the other 3 sons remained in Lancaster County, each having a number of sons. Kenneday Bailey, Sr. also had a number of sons as shown by census records, of whom Kanneday Bailey, Jr. remained in Lancaster County. Duplication of names among the Bailey cousins requires careful attention.

Kennerdy William "K.W." Bailey served as a musician in the Captain Douglas Company of South Carolina in the War of 1812. That year, at 19 years of age, K.W. Bailey married Mary Ann Perry, daughter of George Perry on 9 May 1812 in Bute (now Warren) County N. C. The Baileys moved to Alabama after September 23, 1833. A deed was recorded in 1838, Old Deed Book, N pages 245-248, as follows:

Notes for MARY EDNA BAILEY:
Mary Edna, the youngest daughter of Robert Bradshaw BAILEY, was affectionately nicknamed "Red" by her siblings for her bright red hair. She had a domineering personality, which required a lot of attention. Mary also displayed that Irish temper (or was it the red hair); she often spoke in very strong language when angered. Yet, Mary was a beautiful loving individual, whom two Marble men could not resist. Mary went to college in Selma, Alabama to be a legal secretary. During her college years she went to Pine Hill and Yellow Bluff Campgrounds (Wilcox County, Alabama), where Sam Hood Ball had a cabin.

The marriage of Mary Edna to Lawrence Duane MARBLE:

In the late 1920's, Lawrence Duane Marble, a salesman was travelling through Alabama distributing magazine literature. Edna's sister, Mattie Gertrude answered the door and talked to Lawrence. Mary Edna was in the back room and could hear the northern accent. She came into the front room and said, "Who is this Dam Yankee?" They were married 12 June 1928 in Reform, Alabama. They moved to Ashland, Ohio where she worked in a hat shop in 1937. Mary Edna often drew sketches of ladies fashions of the time.

Grandmother Mary Edna:

Mary had many affectionate nicknames from her 8 grandsons: Nanny, Granny, and Mustang Mary. She would arrive in her Ford Mustang and in a loud, long southern draw, she would say to her grandsons, "Give me some sugar, my darling". Full of life and love, she always gave a hearty welcome with big hugs. Mary's wrists and fingers would be adorn with bracelets and jewelry; wearing as many as ten rings at once. I counted them! Even though she smoked Saratoga cigarettes, she had perfect set of white teeth, which a doctor mistook as dentures. Another childhood memory of Grandmother Mary, was her delight in her flower garden and for the butterflies that flew in it.

Mary Edna statement about her father, Robert Bradshaw BAILEY:

"Robert Bradshaw Bailey was the best farmer in Pickens County in his time. He bought every new farming invention that came along. He may have been one of the firsts, to own a cotton gin. When the family farm was auctioned, many bidders were scratching their heads, trying to figure out what some of the contraptions were used for."

Notes for LAWRENCE DUANE MARBLE:
IN MEMORY OF LAWRENCE DUANE MARBLE

A SOHIO (Standard Oil Company of Ohio) salesman, Lawrence spent a lot of his life traveling the highways of Ohio. Lawrence had a company car and a family car (57 Chevy Belair Sport Coupe) maroon (a dark brownish red chestnut color). What a car! Always kept freshly waxed and in top condition. On his travels, Lawrence would stop in and visit all his relatives. It was always a thrill for Thera Mae's boys, when Grandpa would unexpectedly drive his shiny car into the driveway. The boys enjoyed the smell of the Marlboro cigarettes, Grandpa would smoke during his visit. After Grandpa would leave, it seemed comforting to run back into the house to smell the lingering smoke, (a reminder of his presence). Grandpa brought a couple of bicycles to Brad and Randy. Bicycling was Brad and Randy's major and favorite pastime. Grandpa would take Thera's boys fishing for blue gills at Mifflin Lake, Knox Lake, and Mohawk Reservoir. Thera's boys would always try to amuse Grandpa; they enjoyed his laughter, a loud broken chuckle. When Thera went to Illinois to comfort her dying father Theodore Roberts, her boys stayed a with Lawrence and Elizabeth, (November 1964). Thera and her boys moved to Mount Vernon, Ohio were Grandpa and Elizabeth (Betty) resided at 105 North Division Street from 1945 to 1985 (40 years). Lawrence Duane Marble retired from SOHIO after having multiple heart attacks, he had been employed with SOHIO for 36 years. He received a diamond headed lapel pin during his retirement ceremony at the Surrey Inn Restaurant in Ashland, Ohio. Lawrence had manage the SOHIO station on the corner of Main and Union Street of Ashland, Ohio for 15 years until October 1945 (pictured at top of page). Lawrence was then promoted by the Mansfield division of SOHIO to be Salesman and Regional Manager with his home base in Mount Vernon, Ohio. His job was to assure SOHIO Stations within his region met the SOHIO image, were well supplied, and provided customer satisfaction. Lawrence got tough when standards weren't met and he was well liked and respected.
Lawrence was quite a family man. The oldest son of Duane Pierce and Magdalena Marble, he is remembered well by his brothers and sisters, nephews and nieces, children, and grand children. A busy traveling salesman who found time to be part of all their lives.

23 July 1945 ..Native girls on the beach, nearby, trying to entice the boys ashore for "pom-pom" for the price of twenty to thirty pesos, ($10-$15). Girls stand on the beach raising arms, and shaking it, lifting dresses, wiggling, or shaking their bodies. Very disgusting.

24 July ..Back to old Anchorage(Alaska). Nothing New. 27th .. Darling Mary, I miss you
31st ...same old thing

1 August ..New Month.. Starting it off with more waiting. I could even welcome an Air-Raid or Invasion! No mail for 3 days..I miss your letters, Mary.

Tx., and died October 04, 1992 in Payne Springs, Henderson Co. Tx.. She married CLARENCE ELTON HARKEY October 31, 1929 in Eustace, Henderson Co. Tx..

Notes for CLARENCE ELTON HARKEY:
Never was a man more warm and loving than Clarence Elton Harkey. He truly had a zest for life and worked very hard to provide for his wife and family.
Clarence was the only child born to Benjamin Allen and Amanda Threet Harkey. He was born May 27, 1904 Hopkins County, Texas.
At the young age of 15 months, Clarence's mother died. Upon her death, Clarence and his father, Benjamin, moved into the house with Benjamin's parents, John Jefferson and Mary Epps Harkey. Mary and John still had a large family at home, but were happy to help their son to rear their grandson, Clarence. They lived near Sulphur Springs, Hopkins County, Texas.
When Clarence was 10 years old, his father remarried. Clarence chose to continue living with his grandparents, John and Mary.
After John Jefferson's death in 1915, Clarence, Mary, his grandmother, and Suly May, his spinster aunt, moved into the house with his aunt Lizzie Harkey Hollingsworth family in Hill County. Clarence continued to live there until adulthood. During this time occasionally, he had visits with his father, Benjamin and stepmother, Fannie Mae.
As a young adult Clarence moved to Henderson County. One evening while attending a party, he met a tall dark headed girl named Bertha Opal Pelham. They dated 3 years and married on Oct. 31, 1927. Clarence was working as a lineman for Texas Power and Light when they married. After a year he and Bertha moved on Bertha's family homestead and began farming. While farming, Clarence and Bertha had four children, Wanda Jean, Viola Faye, Glen Edwin, and Barbara Laverne.
At the beginning of World War II, Clarence left the farm and moved to Houston, Texas to work at the Brown Shipyard. While he was in Houston, Bertha and the children moved in with Amanda Pelham, Bertha's mother. Amanda had plenty of room because her two sons, Johnnie and Clifford, were in the service. Every weekend Clarence commuted home to visit the family. This was very hard on everyone because the family had never been separated. Throughout this difficult time, Clarence never complained about his long drives to and from Houston.
Following the war, Clarence moved back to Payne Springs and bought a house in the community. He began working as a carpenter in Dallas and continued until his death. He commuted the fifty to sixty miles to work daily.
Clarence was an extremely talented and creative person. Though he only had a formal education to the eighth grade, he stressed the importance of an education with his children. Clarence was very skilled in eighth grade, he stressed the importance of an education with his children. Clarence was very skilled in using his hands. He could draw very well and was a good woodworker. Often he whittled tops and made whistles, jewelry and other toys for his children.

Fishing and hunting were two things that he enjoyed most. He often took the family for outings to the Pelham Lake. The family knew that when he went fishing they would always have fish for dinner. If he did not catch fish, he would stop by the fish market and buy some. The family never knew whether he bought or caught the fish unless Glenn was with him.
Even though Clarence never joined The Methodist Church, he always went with his family. He did much work around the church and took pride in all his work. Wanda, his eldest daughter, recalls, the last visit she had with him, one week prior to his death. He took her and her husband to the church to show them the new pulpit and communion rail that he had built.
Clarence developed pneumonia after having influenza and died on Feb. 14, 1960. At the time of his death he was working toward becoming a member of the Masonic Lodge. The Harkey family lodge membership history goes back several generations.
Clarence Harkey's family is very grateful for the loving guidance that he gave. He continues to be missed and will live on in their hearts forever.
